EXCURSION TO COLORADO.

Ogden Tabernacle Choir Consider Proposition Of a Ten Days' Outing.

Will of John Scoweroft Filed-Estate Valued at $100,000 Goes to Wife And Children.

The Ogden Tabernacle choir has under consideration the proposition of a ten days' trip to Denver some time about the beginning of June. Last evening at the regular practice, President L. W. Shurtliff and Vice President C. J. Ross were in attendance, and presented the matter of a trip to Denver and other Colorado points, which proposition was received most heartily by the choir. Up to the present time only the pre-liminary steps for the taking of such a trip have been considered. President Shurtliff has had such a trip for the Ogden choir in contemplation for some time past and has had a meeting with the railroad officials, who have con-sented to place a train at the disposal of the choir at such a low rate that all of the members will be able to avail selves of such an opportunity to see the grandeur of Colorado.

Arrangements will also be made whereby friends of the choir may oin them in the pleasure, at a rate that is exceedingly low.

The trip has not been fully decided upon as yet, but the delights of such a trip were presented to the choir last evening, and by next Thursday night it is expected that each member of the choir will be spared to state whether they can go or not. Prof. Ballantyne is heartily in favor of the trip and from the enthusiasm expressed last be taken. No grander trip could be contemplated than one through the magnificent scenery of our neighbor state.

WILL OF JOHN SCOWCROFT.

The last will and testament of the late John Scowcroft has been filed in the Second district court for probate by C. Richards, as attorney for the exe cutors of the estate. The total value of the estate, including all personal and real property, is $100,000. The will names as the executors of the estate the deceased's wife, Mrs. Sarah Alice Scowcroft, and his two eldest sons, Joseph and Willard Scowcroft. The heirs to the estate are the widow and his six children, Joseph, Willard, Heber, Albert, Sarah Alice McCune and Flor-ence Martha. The will was drawn up about 18 months ago by Attorney C. C. Richards, and is a lengthy document, covering several pages of typewritten data. The will first directs that his body shall be decently buried, and that his funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and all of his debts and llabilto those of his family residing at home all of the personal effects contained in their rooms in the home. He be-queathed to his wife a life interest in the home, and one-half of the estate and at her death the home may be bought by his son Joseph for $18,000 if he desires, or the next oldest son, and the other half of the estate is bequeathed to his six children.

The estate consists of a considerable amount of valuable real estate situated in Ogden city and Weber county, the beautiful Lancaster home, situated on Twenty-sixth street, which will always stand as a monument to the memory of the deceased; also 515 shares of capital stock in the John Scoweroft & Sons 16 shares in the Ogden bank, and 50 shares in the Ogden Sugar

ROLD-UPS GIVEN HEARING.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, James McDonaid, James Lourey, Wil-liam Baldwin and Charles Crain, were given a preliminary hearing before Judge Howell on the charge of holding up and robbing William Pettigrew and R. S. Cunningham, while they were coming into Ogden Tuesday night on a freight train from Corinne. The two men who were held up positively identified the three first named men as the parties who were implicated in the hold-up, but could not positive's iden-tify Crane, but stated that he answered the description in every way. The men minutely told of the gun having been placed in their faces and of the hold-ups going through their pock-etc, but that they did not secure any money from them. Crane proved to the court that he was not guilty of the crime and was discharged. The hearing was not completed and will be continued today: The three men admit that they were at Corinne the day before the hold-up, but assert their innocence of the crime. M. I. A. LECTURES.

The Young Men's Mutual Improvement work for the year has been com-pleted, with success, and the superin-tendency has decided to have a series of lectures given as follows in the Ogden tabernacle: April 22, Tuesday, 7:29 p. m., "Our pre-existence and the God Head," Elder B.
